Performance

I help dissatisfied executives transform their frustration into High Energy Performance in all areas of their life.

What's the value of our TEAMWORK?

In today's Newsletter we'll address: what it will take to be a member of the 'community of High Energy Performers'.

3 Interactions:

- Your objectives
- Our interaction
- Your results

I said to a client, mover and shaker, this week: "If everyone would commit and perform the way that you 'perform'... this country will be 'truly great' again."... and I meant it.

For over 2 decades I've worked with high performance executives, CEO's, and business owners, in 4 continents.

I've witnessed stress in a war 'environment', strangulating economic decline, adverse family dynamics brought about by the expat lifestyle... and personally, I've lost a parent to suicide as his business imploded.

What I saw within my client this week, who himself is a very successful business owner, are characteristics and traits that define High Energy Performance: connectivity with relentless excellence, and willingness to 'listen and learn', irrespective of his position.

Like me, he shoots for extraordinary performance in his field. The difference from a majority of successful individuals: his professional success translates to every other aspect of his life: family, friends, health... He is fully engaged and wholly committed. Sure, he's not perfect, as we continue to 'shift' a few stubborn beliefs, though there is absolute willingness. With 'absolute willingness' and application... comes extraordinary results.

This is a parallel that I aspire to as an individual, bent on creating an 'awakening' for people like you to live as High Energy Performers... meeting and even exceeding your potential.

When United States Ambassador to Vietnam, Ted Osius, claimed

“Paul has a contagious energy about him and has the epitome of professionalism and passion demonstrating a knowledge level of content and methodology second to none.”

... there's a reason for this. I have a purpose/mission that inspires and fully-engages me: to inspire and challenge people like you: creating a High Energy Performance community, of current and past executives, CEO's & business owners. The objective being, to extract the most that you have to offer, because you have it to give yourself, even with your 'current barriers'... No, especially with your current barriers, because they make you unique. You just have to learn how to use them to your benefit.

Robert Green, author of Mastery, The 48 Laws Of Power, and The Art Of Seduction, truly understands what it means to be a High Energy Performer, when he states:

“Become who you are by learning who you are.”

This might seem like a given, or simple concept. On the contrary: How well do you really know yourself... or how well do you admit to really knowing yourself?

Working with executives, CEO's, and business owners for more than 2 decades, I've seen it all: the excuses, barriers, 'commitment to mediocrity', fatigue, exhaustion, complacency, and diminishing returns.

As I said earlier: my purpose: AWAKENING & IMPLEMENTATION. Now you have the opportunity for buy-in.

I'm asking you to up your game, create unwavering trust in 'the HIGH ENERGY PERFORMANCE process', and our TEAMWORK, connecting with me on a level that you haven't until now. This is how we get you extraordinary results. I'm building a community of High Energy Performers, and I want you.

The alternative:

“The passive ironic attitude is not cool or romantic, but pathetic and destructive.”
- Robert Green

I'm going to challenge you with the following:

Your decisions and actions are a matter of Life or Death. Action is 'Life'; Inaction is Slow Death.

- The latter, I witnessed in Sydney, Israel, Vietnam... and certainly The U.S. It is 'passive interaction with self', that you might not even be aware exists. This is why I am requesting that you up your game.

“The conventional mind is passive - it consumes information and regurgitates it in familiar forms. The dimensional mind is active, transforming everything it digests into something new and original, creating instead of consuming.”
- Robert Green

- The former is the 'dimensional mind', just like my client's this week. This is where we up your game. I'm going to challenge you to apply the principles that you live by professionally, to yourself, and what you can offer the rest of your life.

What reason am I 'painting polarity' between these 2 options?

I've explored so many conditions, assessing and researching the impact and outcomes. The conventional approach is 'safe'. It's this 'safety' that leads to apathy, acceptance of norms, and struggles with health and performance. The 'dimensional mind and approach', requires risk, stimulation, motivation, and creativity. The outcomes are profound:

Extraordinary performance, quality of life inside and outside your work environment, High Energy Performance, High Energy work output.

Whether or not you recognize it: we are a TEAM. As a Team, I'm requesting from you a more concrete approach to your health, performance and output. This is what I live for... and now I request that you 'up your game', connecting with me in ways that you haven't until now.

"...we only glimpse a small portion of reality."
- Robert Green

It's time to see the big picture... investing in yourself for the rest of your life.

Take-Away

- Your 'objectives' are at the forefront of what we achieve together. It's up to us to help you clear the barriers, and promote all your 'resources'. This is the 'dimensional' approach.
- Our 'interaction' is the foundation for extraordinary performance and output, focusing on how you powerfully interact with your professional environment... and outside your professional environment.
- The 'results', as a community of High Energy Performers, is to 'awaken' - streamlining what works and what doesn't, then fully 'apply' yourself... building extraordinary performance. It all starts with: what you are prepared to bring to the table.
- This is TEAMWORK.
